

A Moment with Donna.....The Time is Now

What the world needs now, is love sweet love, that's the only thing there is too little of...

As I was preparing this commentary those words were playing in my head. 'Very interesting' I thought, as this is the month when Valentine's Day is happily celebrated on the 14th. To have these lyrics pop into my mind after just having heard newscasts of doom and gloom...well, it changed my perspective within seconds. After all, ... who is in charge of how I think and what my attitudes and actions are going to be? Me, of course.

So many changes have evolved within a very short period of time. My pen, along with my computer keyboard and software, have been incredibly busy. As I have been thinking about this New Year of 2021, I determined that Do it now, Seize the Moment...is going to be my mantra for this year.

How often do we set up our goals, write out our dreams, and then find ourselves distracted, or like last year, have circumstances affecting us that we have no control over. We then wipe our slate of plans clean, feeling they are now out of our reach. If we are thoughtful, we put them on hiatus, until circumstances change.

It is time to reframe, redesign, regroup, evaluate new strategies...like a Navy Seal would. What do we have to work with? Who can be a part of our team? What time frame do we choose to do the work? What tools do we have and/or need? Then, most importantly, how do we implement the action we need to put into place?

If I'm sounding a little pushy it is because I'm having to do all of what I have just mentioned. Waiting for a government solution, or rescue of one type or another to come along, just isn't realistic. As individuals, like those who lived through the Greatest Generation period, we have had to deal with incredible challenges. Our ancestors had to stand up, be innovative, adapt to serious conditions and ugly circumstances that went on for years. We can do the same. No whining allowed.

It is a rare day when I don't hear about huge life changing circumstances with people. However, just like our ancestors, when we work together as a community or as a nation, we are amazing at what we can accomplish.

This period of swift change is giving us the tremendous opportunity to dig deep down inside of ourselves so we can pull up and out, those skills and talents to reengage in new ways.

Love, respect, appreciation, is so important. Can you give that to yourself? If you can't then start working on that first. When you can, the opportunities open up for you to be a light for others because you are about being the best you can be, not a victim. You then become an active participant in this phenomenal experience called life.

This month of February give yourself the gift of focusing on your priorities. The gift of self-assessment and self-investment is invaluable. You are worth every bit of the effort you put into yourself. Tune into your self-awareness and turn on the light within. The ripple effect will inspire others, making them curious about they can do to shine like you. Spread the love but also the wisdom. The rewards are great.

Happy Valentine's Day and have a joyous and fabulous month.

February's Power Thought

"The true interest of Americans is mutual interest. The doctrines that put race against race, group against group, class against class and worker against employer all are false doctrines. They are preached only by assassins of progress who are economic parasites or political pirates. We want to recreate an America in which their falsehoods cannot prevail, where the energies of men and women shall be devoted to constructive efforts." ~ Wheeler McMillen

February's Chuckle — submitted by B.G., California

Ever since he was a child, a fellow always had a fear of someone under his bed at night. So he went to a shrink and told him, "I've got problems. Every time I go to bed I think there's somebody under it. I'm scared and I think I'm going crazy."

"Just put yourself in my hands for one year," said the shrink. "Come in and talk to me three times a week and we should be able to get rid of those fears."

"How much do you charge?"

"Eighty dollars per visit", replied the doctor.

"I'll sleep on it", the fellow said.

Six months later the doctor met him on the street. "Why didn't you come to see me about those fears you were having?" he asked.

"Well, eighty bucks a visit, three times a week for a year is $12,480.00. A bartender cured me for $10.00. I was so happy to have saved all that money that I went and bought me a new pickup truck."

"Is that so?" With a bit of an attitude the shrink asked, "and how, may I ask, did a bartender cure you?"

"He told me to cut the legs off the bed. Ain't nobody under there now!"

It always pays to get a second opinion.

What's Your Story?

I am in the process of putting together a publication “Stories People Tell Me”. I have had a number of submissions and I am looking for an additional 25 stories about paranormal experiences, UFO’s, aura’s and the unique and unusual not logical happenings that make us aware that life is anything but boring. Please send submissions to donnaseebo@comcast.net. Do send your contact information as well (phone number, etc.) Thank you.

Golden Nuggets – True Stories about Real People

This was submitted by R.J., Alaska

With all that has been going on for the past year of 2020 and what we are experiencing in this new year of 2021, this video brings into perspective a deep appreciation of life, its experiences, and how we will eventually put behind us the limitations we have been going through, moving forward, just like our ancestors did. Share this with friends and family. It may surprise them.

The Recipe Box... Chocolate Cherries

Hearts and flowers are a strong symbol for the month of February, along with chocolate. Why not created a new tradition with this chocolate cherry candy recipe and surprise that special person in your life? Let's hope they'll share their gift with you. If not, make a little extra, and set it aside for pampering yourself.

Ingredients: 12 candied cherries, 2 Tbls. rum or brandy, 9 oz. marzipan, 5 ½ oz. dark chocolate, extra milk, dark or white chocolate to decorate candy pieces (optional).

Directions: Line a cookie sheet with baking parchment. Cut the cherries in half and place them in a small bowl. Add the rum or brandy and stir to coat. Set the cherries aside to soak for a minimum of 1 hour, stirring occasionally. Divide the marzipan into 24 pieces and roll each piece into a ball. Press half a marinated cherry into the top of each marzipan ball. Break the chocolate into pieces and melt in a double boiler. Dip each candy into the melted chocolate allowing the excess to drip back into the pan. Place the coated cherries on the baking parchment and chill until set. If desired, melt a little extra chocolate and drizzle it over the top of the coated cherries. Let set.

Special Note: You can use a whole almond in place of the halved candied cherries and omit the liquor.

Special Comments

A special 'thank you' to the many people who join me weekdays to hear 'The Donna Seebo Show' and 'Warriors for Peace' from around the country and the world. Your emails, calls and wonderful letters make my day. It is always a joy to share the talents and information from people and other sources that can make our lives better. Should you have recipes, ideas and/or information you think my listeners might be interested in, please email the information to me. Do put The Donna Seebo Show in the subject line. Due to the tremendous amount of material received, I cannot promise that I will use it on my show but I do review everything that is sent.

For authors who are interested in being interviewed on my program, please send a copy of your book/CD/DVD publication along with your press kit to the address noted below. All materials are reviewed for content and if accepted, you will be contacted to schedule a date for an interview. Currently my interviews are booked two to three months in advance. It is always advisable to follow up with a phone call to be sure that your materials are received by my office.
